

What Are We Living For?

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild

Flowers bloom, soon wither away. Like the falling raindrops that trickle down evaporate. The breath of life breathes into us, just like a vapor we fade away then we're gone. So what are we living for? Someone open a door. Socrates, Darwin, Plato, of making books there's no end... philosophy, vanity! This world's turned upside down and it's wasting away. So what are we living for? Someone open a door. Someone tell me there's more. Our faith should not stand in the wisdom of men. The power of God is infinite. And it searches out the answers. Our faith should not stand in the wisdom of men. The power of God forever shall stand. And it searches out the answers.

Emmanuel

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild

Emmanuel we want to do Your will. Hosanna lead us on Your path. King of kings You wear a crown of thorns. Oh Lamb of God for us You shed Your blood. This world is rejecting everything we're accepting. The Light of the world, a Lamp unto our feet. The One who holds the key to eternity. Our High Priest and our Advocate. Prince of peace and the Shepard's Gate. This world is rejecting everything that we're accepting. We are His forever. Until the end no longer His servants, but now His friends. Merciful One You promised paradise in the world to come. We'll see You when we rise. Emmanuel we want to do Your will. Oh Lamb of God for us You shed Your blood.

New Jerusalem

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild

There's a place I want to smell the flowers where the sweetness is never sour. Will you come along? From the people in the streets of Baghdad to a starving child in Thailand. Will you come along? And all the Prophets have spoken. And all will see that they're not joking. Then I saw that earth was heaven, that our place was special in the universe. Wipe away all the tears from your eyes, our place is special in the universe. Will you come along? The New Jerusalem, will you come along? How I long to walk in its (God's) city and how I want to call it home. You know it's gonna happen. You know we're gonna be there, the New Jerusalem.

Randy Vild lead vocals, guitar Terry Moore bass Milo Todesco tabla, drums Anne Fruehling flute

No One Knows The Day or Hour

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild

No one knows the day or hour when the end shall come to pass. No one knows the day or hour when we shall see the Son of man. Not the Angels that dwell in heaven, only the Father from above. No one knows the day or hour when the end shall come. Many will come in His name saying I am the Son of man. They will lead and deceive, wars will break out across the land. But do not fear don't leave the path for all these things must come to pass. No one knows the day or hour when the end shall come. Those that shall endure unto the end shall be given eternity by His graciousness. And the gospel shall be preached in all the world as a witness unto all then the end shall come. Twelve gates, angels, twelve tribes the children of Israel . Twelve names, apostles, the foundation of the City of Gold . Rainbow, the Throne, God will rule forever and ever. No one knows the day or hour when the end shall come to pass...

God's Mandolin

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild

Do you have the faith it takes to move a mountain from its place? Do you have the strength of ten when you're looking in the eyes of death? The wheel of life will have its end, the spirit of God will transcend. For All God's children live in hope for the day when He'll bring us home. Cast me in a fiery furnace a choir of angels will sing deliverance. Throw me in a lion's den and I will play God's mandolin. There was a king in Babylon who thought his kingdom would go on and on. Read the writing on the wall, kingdoms rise kingdoms fall

James

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild

Oh James, you told me to be joyful when troubles looking me in my face. James, you said I'll build patience if I just try and work on my faith, you said it James. Don't want to be double-minded unstable in my ways like grass that is withered and fades away. I want to be tried, receive the crown of life promised unto those who love his name. You said it James. Oh James, you said were the first fruits of creation. The very first, how lovely are those words you say James. You said were the very first.

Randy Vild lead vocals, guitar keyboards Terry Moore bass Milo Todesco drums

We Must Not Fall Away

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild

We were made from the clay for a better place. We were bought for a price so we could be saved. We are weak, we fall away straight into the grave. We're the salt of the earth. Have we lost our flavor? We must not fall away. They'll be many dark hours' affliction and pain. They'll be mocking and laughing cursing your name, but they're just misguided they don't know the way, for we are living in the last days. So we march through the wilderness nourished from heaven. Don't look back like Lot 's wife did. A pillar of salt she became. We must not fall away.

Invisible

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild

The existence of God is invisible here it's a lot like the wind. It's not what I see that makes me believe in the power of love that He gives. His love will endure heavens and earth. He'll light up His truth in your heart. The power of love descends like a dove. The God of this world appears to be good like an angel of light. It's not what I see that makes me believe I'm told to prove what is right. His love will endure heavens and earth. He'll light up His truth in your heart. Just look at creation, it's a reflection of God's great power. Just because you can't see Him doesn't mean don't believe Him. We shall see Him as He is. Invisible, our God is all powerful.

Randy Vild lead vocals, guitar, keyboards Terry Moore bass Leif Fearn drums Harmony Hoover, Laurie Martz, Paul Bartlett backing vocals

Pass Over Me

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild

Death angel, pass over me. I will eat the bread of life. I will drink the fruit of thy vine.
I will clean out leavening. I will purge out sin in my life. Be my cloud by day. Be my pillar by night. Let me cross the Red Sea to a land of milk and honey.

Glorified

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild

Lord of lords, King of kings your love is like a stream that flows through me. Give to me understanding of the truth that's in your letters of temperance. How I need your love.
I'm understanding, my bodies tingling with the truth that's in your letters of temperance.
Loving kindness, gentleness is what you're made of. How I need your love, how I need it, I'll always need it. We'll all rise and meet him up in the sky. We'll all change in a twinkle of an eye. We're gonna be glorified. It's how we are designed. We're gonna be glorified and see the light.

Song of Solomon

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild & Terry Moore

Song of songs, song of Solomon. Kiss me, your love is better then wine. Kiss me and I will rejoice in you. Your love is better then wine. Song of songs, song of Solomon.
Honey and milk are under your tongue. Kiss me and I will rejoice in you, your love is better then wine. I am dark but lovely like a lily amongst the thorns. The rain is over and gone flowers appear in the sun. Time of singing has come.

When Our King Returns

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild

The Lord's glorious voice shall be heard with His beloved saints when He returns. And I saw heaven open up. He rode a white horse faithful and true. His name was on many crowns the meaning no one knew. His eyes were as flames of fire, when our king returns.

The Beast was taken away and cast into a fire with the prophet that betrayed the faith, they will kill no more. Then Satan was bound in chains. I saw thousands of thrones and on them sat His bride to rule for eternity always at His side. And all shall know His name, when our King returns.

Randy Vild lead vocals, guitar Terry Moore bass Anthony Warner drums Carolyn Brinkman french horn Harmony Hoover, Laurie Martz, Paul Bartlett, Dennis Fischer backing vocals

Are We Worthy Enough?

Music and Lyrics by Randy Vild

We are the children of God He watches over us. By His spirit we're lead building confidence. Are we worthy enough to drink the cup of holiness? We walk a path that's narrow to New Jerusalem where God will sit on His throne in His holy Temple . Are we worthy enough to stand before our God? All we know is that we need you. All we know is that we need the truth. We feel his love towards us for He gave His Son that our sins would be washed. We seek the Kingdom. Are we worthy enough? Our God has made us thus, we are worthy enough.
